From the Pastor's Desk

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for a friend." (Jn 15:13)

In the most profound act of love Jesus laid down his life so that all might have the opportunity of everlasting life. This tells us that we are, each one of us, potential friends of Christ.

An essential ingredient of our friendship with Christ involves our love for God and for others. We express our love for God and for others through our commitment to God's glory and our self-giving service to others, which reflects God's glory.

Like Jesus, we want to be open to new and deepening friendship with others. As part of our good friendship and community with others, we must always be ready to forgive others and allow them (and us) to grow in love – to transform their (and our) lives and to be more like Christ.

Our efforts to better love others in friendship and community, especially those efforts that entail sacrifice, allow us to lay down our lives for our friends and to express the greatest love.

Let us follow Christ and his call to lay down our lives for our friends!

Thank you to all those who volunteered at, donated to, or attended our parish Rummage Sale (see pics later in the bulletin). The Rummage sale raised $4,600 for the parish. Thank you!

Thank you, too, to the Parish Cleanup volunteers who spent time enhancing the landscape at our two parish sites, on Saturday. (see pics later in the bulletin)

Please join me in welcoming Mike Kuharchuk (in photo) as our new Food Pantry and Medical Lending Closet Director. Mike is a longtime parishioner who has been very involved in parish life and in our parish food collection at St. Louise de Marillac church. Welcome, Mike!

In addition, thank you to our Food Pantry volunteers for their dedication to our community. Their dedication allowed us to keep our Food Pantry open during our search for a new Director.

-Fr. Brian Kean

Desde el escritorio del pastor

"Nadie tiene mayor amor que este: dar la vida por un amigo". (Juan 15:13)

En el acto de amor más profundo, Jesús entregó su vida para que todos tuvieran la oportunidad de la vida eterna. Esto nos dice que somos, cada uno de nosotros, amigos potenciales de Cristo.

Un ingrediente esencial de nuestra amistad con Cristo implica nuestro amor por Dios y por los demás. Expresamos nuestro amor por Dios y por los demás a través de nuestro compromiso con la gloria de Dios y nuestro servicio desinteresado a los demás, que refleja la gloria de Dios.

Como Jesús, queremos estar abiertos a amistades nuevas y cada vez más profundas con los demás. Como parte de nuestra buena amistad y comunidad con los demás, siempre debemos estar dispuestos a perdonar a los demás y permitirles (y a nosotros) crecer en amor, transformar sus (y las nuestras) vidas y llegar a ser más como Cristo.

Nuestros esfuerzos por amar mejor a los demás en la amistad y la comunidad, especialmente aquellos esfuerzos que implican sacrificio, nos permiten dar la vida por nuestros amigos y expresar el mayor amor.

¡Sigamos a Cristo y su llamado a dar la vida por nuestros amigos!

Gracias a todos los que se ofrecieron como voluntarios, donaron o asistieron a nuestra venta de artículos usados de la parroquia (ver fotos más adelante en el boletín). La venta de artículos usados recaudó $4,600 para la parroquia. ¡Gracias!

Gracias también a los voluntarios de limpieza parroquial que dedicaron tiempo a mejorar el paisaje en nuestras dos parroquias el sábado. (ver fotos más adelante en el boletín)

Únase a mí para darle la bienvenida a Mike Kuharchuk (en la foto) como nuestro nuevo Director de Despensa de Alimentos y Armario de Préstamos Médicos. Mike es un feligrés desde hace mucho tiempo que ha estado muy involucrado en la vida parroquial y en nuestra colecta de alimentos parroquial en la Iglesia St. Louise de Marillac. ¡Bienvenido Mike!

Además, gracias a nuestros voluntarios de Food Pantry por su dedicación a nuestra comunidad, cuya dedicación nos permitió mantener abierta nuestra Food Pantry durante nuestra búsqueda de un nuevo Director.

-PAG. Brian Kean
