Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Jeremiah 23:1-6 / 107

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the Lord.

Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord,
 when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David;
 as king he shall reign and govern wisely,
 he shall do what is just and right in the land.
 In his days Judah shall be saved,
 Israel shall swell in security.
 This is the name they give him;
 "The Lord our justice."

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23: Shepherd Me, O God

Refrain

Shep-herd me, O God, be - yond my wants, be - yond my fears, from death in - to life.

Verses

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want;
 I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love;
 I walk by the quiet waters of peace.
2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul;
 you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth;
 my spirit shall sing the music of your name.
3. Though I should wander the valley of death,
 I fear no evil, for you are at my side;
 your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.
4. You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred, crowning me with love beyond my pow'r to hold.
5. Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life;
 I will dwell in the house of my God forevermore.

Second Reading

Ephesians 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel

Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.
